

Supporting Engagement for the Hardest to Reach:

Opportunities for young people and adults

Leeds City College | 12 October 2011

This seminar forms part of the AoC/MBO Raad European programme on New Approaches for New Skills for Social Inclusion (NANSSI).

Programme (Subject to change)

10.00	Coffee & registration
-------	-----------------------

10.30 The purpose of NANSSI
AoC

10.40 Helping the hard to reach through innovation in teaching and learning
MICHELLE MORRIS (CL for NEET Engagement, Leeds City College)

11.00 Identifying and Reaching Young Learners with a lack of basic skills: The Dutch experience
INA DEN HOLLANDER and IETEKE BOS (CINOP)

11.30 Showcasing best practice in European project work for the hard to reach
DAVID LLEWELLYN and LINDSEY JOHNSON (Craven College)

(Tea & Coffee available during this session)

12.45 Question & Answer Session
SUE PARKER (Facilitator)

13.10	Lunch
-------	-------

Programme – afternoon session

13.55 New approaches to working with the hard to reach
SUE KEENAN (Integrated Employment and Skills Manager, Lancaster and Morecombe College)

14.40 Workshop Groups (based on your specific interest)

- Developing ideas for implementation
- Discussing practicalities of establishing strategies and projects based on the NANSSI theme
- Determining the first steps for future projects

15.10 Presentation on the principles of and discussion about a possible VET
'alumni' scheme across Europe
AoC

15.45

Close